Job Description

Anita Aasen, a licensed clinical social worker and therapist with over 30 years of experience, specializes in helping individuals navigate grief and loss. After losing her brother, Lou, in 2017, Anita felt a deep calling to support others through their healing journey. Her approach combines professional therapeutic expertise with personal understanding, offering compassionate guidance for those experiencing loss. She believes grief is a non-linear process and provides tailored support to help clients find peace and resilience.
